Description

Sealskinz Harling Waterproof All Weather Gloves

The Sealskinz Harling Waterproof All Weather Gloves are lightweight yet durable gloves designed for reliable protection in outdoor environments. Featuring a three-layer Aquasealz™ waterproof construction, they keep hands dry while maintaining breathability and comfort during active use.
Pre-curved fingers improve natural hand movement and flexibility, while the PU suede palm enhances grip and durability. Touchscreen-compatible thumb and index finger allow convenient use of mobile devices without removing the gloves.
Designed for hiking, outdoor work and everyday wear in wet or cold conditions, the Harling gloves provide dependable weather protection while maintaining dexterity and comfort.

Key Features

- 100% waterproof Aquasealz™ membrane protecting hands from rain and moisture
- Durable PU suede palm providing enhanced grip and long-lasting performance
- Touchscreen compatible thumb and index finger for device use

- Pre-curved finger construction improving flexibility and natural movement
- Microfleece inner lining delivering warmth and comfort
- Lightweight all-weather design suitable for outdoor activities and everyday use

Three-Layer Construction

- Outer Layer: Durable synthetic fabric with pre-curved design and PU suede palm for grip.
- Middle Layer: Aquasealz™ waterproof membrane allowing moisture vapour to escape while blocking external water.
- Inner Layer: Soft microfleece lining that enhances warmth and comfort.

Design and Performance

The Harling gloves combine weather protection with flexibility and durability. The breathable waterproof membrane keeps hands dry while allowing internal moisture to escape, helping maintain comfort during active use.
The PU suede palm improves grip on tools, trekking poles and outdoor equipment, while touchscreen compatibility allows the user to operate smartphones or navigation devices without removing the gloves.
