The 75Tactical magazine pouch G36 DELTA is designed to tactically hold one G36 magazine.

The magazine pouch G36 DELTA can be closed or opened with a Velcro cover, or optionally used with an elastic band for quick access. The user can decide for himself with which safety function he wants to secure the magazine in the bag by changing the magazine cover. The rubber band safety can be secured with a Velcro strip on the side of the bag for trouble-free use. On each side of the bag there are two additional elastic bands, so that the magazine bag is compressible, so that even when the bag is open in use, the magazine can not fall out.
