Description

ACME Clicker No. 470 with Leather Wrist Strap

The ACME Clicker No. 470 is the original and world-famous clicker used for the training of dogs, horses, and other animals. Crafted from polished brass for long-lasting durability, it produces the clear, distinctive click sound that has made ACME a trusted name in professional training tools. This iconic clicker also has historical significance – originally developed as a children's toy, it was later used by Allied forces on June 6, 1944 (D-Day) to identify one another by its recognizable sound. Each clicker is delivered with a certificate of authenticity and a leather wrist strap for convenient handling during training or outdoor use.

Key Features

- Classic ACME No. 470 clicker – world-renowned for training use
- Made of polished brass for strength and longevity
- Includes a leather wrist strap for comfort and portability
