Description

Berghaus MMPS Centurio II 45 Army Backpack

The Centurio 45 adds to Berghaus' MMPS (Multi Mission Pack System). This modular backpack is designed to integrate with the Berghaus Crusader and Centurio packs, offering a flexible system that can adapt to different mission requirements. It is robust, versatile, and ideal for military or outdoor expeditions.

Key Features:

- Back Panel with Ventilation Channel: Provides enhanced airflow for better comfort during extended use.
- Internal Aluminium Frame: A removable frame provides load support and stability.
- Hydration System Compatible: Ensures you stay hydrated during your mission or outdoor adventure.
- MMPS Modular System: The pack integrates with MMPS side pockets for increased carrying capacity up to 65L (sold separately).
- Molle Webbing and Attachment Points: Includes molle webbing, four accessory attachment points with shock cord, and a top lid pocket for additional gear storage.
- Ice Axe/Walking Pole Attachment: An easy-to-access attachment point for poles or ice axes during adverse weather conditions.
- Waist Belt: Adjustable waist belt ensures carrying comfort by evenly distributing the weight.
