Description

Berghaus Tactical FLT HEROS 35 FA IR Military Backpack, Stone Grey Olive

The Heros 35 is a versatile combat pack designed to support multi-hour missions. Its flexible back panel, along with an adjustable shoulder harness, is engineered to fold smoothly over an ops vest. Despite its compact size, the Heros 35 is spacious enough to carry all essential combat equipment while remaining unobtrusive to movement. The stowable hip belt can be hidden in side compartments ("garage") to enhance mobility. Made from 560 dtex Cordura, the Heros 35 meets Bundeswehr standards TL 8305-0278, ensuring exceptional durability and performance in the field.

Key Features

- Cyclops II Back System: Provides excellent load stability and comfort during extended missions.
- Front Access (FA): Quick access to gear through a front zipper opening.
- Side Compression Straps: Stabilize and compress the load efficiently.
- Adjustable Shoulder Harness: Customizable for a comfortable fit over ops vests and gear.
- Stowable Hip Belt: Hip belt can be tucked into side "garages" to improve movement flexibility.
- Hip Belt Tightening: Forward-pull straps for fast adjustment.

- Back Panel with Ventilation Channel: Allows for improved airflow, keeping the user comfortable during long missions.
- Infrared (IR) Protection: The Heros 35 is made from infrared-coated fabric that reduces visibility to night vision and infrared detection devices. This feature is crucial for tactical operations where maintaining low visibility is essential for mission success. The IR fabric meets Bundeswehr standards TL 8305-0278, providing added protection from detection by enemy infrared technology.
