Description

Berghaus Tactical FLT HEROS 45 FA IR Military Backpack, Stone Grey Olive

The Heros 45 is a versatile pack designed for multi-hour combat missions. It features a flexible back panel with an adjustable shoulder harness that fits smoothly over an operational vest. Big enough to carry all necessary combat gear but compact enough to avoid obstructing movement, the Heros 45 is built for combat readiness. The stowable hip belt can be hidden in side compartments to enhance movability. Constructed from 560 dtex Cordura, it meets Bundeswehr standards TL 8305-0278 for durability and operational reliability.

Key Features

- Cyclops II Back System: Provides superior load stability and comfort.
- Front Access (FA): Quick access to essential gear through the front zipper opening.
- Side Compression Straps: Stabilize loads efficiently with adjustable side straps.
- Adjustable Shoulder Harness: Customizable fit to accommodate various body sizes and operational gear.
- Stowable Hip Belt: Hip belt can be tucked into side compartments ("garage") for optimal movability.
- Hip Belt Tightening: Convenient forward-pull straps for quick

- Back Panel with Ventilation Channel: Enhances airflow to keep the user comfortable during extended missions.
- Infrared (IR) Protection: Made with infrared-coated fabric, this backpack reduces visibility to night vision and infrared detection devices. This feature is vital in tactical operations where low visibility is crucial for mission success, providing superior protection from being detected by enemy infrared equipment.
