Description

Berghaus Tactical FLT STASH PACK IR Military Backpack, Cedar Green

The Stash Pack is a 24-litre foldable daypack, offering comprehensive storage that can be stowed inside any rucksack or hung inside FLT rucksacks, as well as 2nd generation MMPS FA packs. A thin padded back panel ensures comfort even when carrying sharp equipment. This pack is perfect for situations where your main rucksack needs to stay packed or stored in a different location.

Key Features

- Back Panel with Thin Padding: Provides comfort while carrying, even with sharp or bulky items.
- Roll-Top Closure: Ensures quick and secure closure for the main compartment, keeping your gear safe.
- Zippered Front Pocket: Offers easy access to smaller items for quick retrieval.
- Includes FLT Shoulder Harness IR: Equipped with Accessory Connector Hooks (ACH) for added versatility.
- Infrared (IR) Protection: The Stash Pack is made from IR-coated fabric, specifically Nylon N66 70D 210T ripstop material. This IR coating significantly reduces the pack's visibility to night vision.
