Description

Trimmed for the outdoors - made for adventure. The Boker Plus Desertman contains the uncompromising DNA of the successful Outdoorsman and convinces as a full-blown fixed blade knife on every trip into the outdoors. The continuous tang and the wide blade ensure maximum stability, while the protruding handle end shaped as a hammer surface provides valuable services. The directly injected GRP handle has a large grip zone made of sandy-brown TPR, which guarantees very secure, pleasant handling even in wet or cold conditions. The spearpoint blade is made of 12C27 and is titanium coated for increased corrosion protection. Supplied with a custom-fit plastic sheath.
