Description

The popular Strike series is known for its robust automatic knives, which impress both in everyday life and with emergency services. Building on this success, Boker Plus presents a noble variant with a blade made of 110-layer Damascus. The slim, ergonomically shaped handle is based on solid steel plates, which are equipped with grippy milled and lightweight black aluminum scales. Deep grooves in the pronounced thumb recess also support safe handling of the automatic knife. The drop point blade with decorative ricasso is opened with a push button and held in place by the robust button lock, which is additionally secured by the slider. There is a reversible clip (tip-up/tip-down) on the back. Supplied with a high-quality nylon case for storage.
