Description

The FIT 640 self-inflating mattress is the perfect solution for tall people who are looking for comfortable and lightweight camping gear. The self-inflating mat is covered with an ultralight ripstop material. The bottom of the mattress is black, and the deep, dark green color on top discreetly blends into the surroundings.

The filling is made of a resilient, perforated foam with a density of only 12kg/m³, which, combined with the anatomical shape, ultimately results in a weight of only 640g for a thickness of 2.5cm and a length of 195cm. BUSHMEN Travel Gear FIT mattresses are about 25% lighter than mats of the same size and about 20% lighter than other ultralight self-inflating mats with the same parameters. BUSHMEN Travel Gear FIT self-inflating mats are among the lightest self-inflating mattresses available on the market.

Properties:

- Ultra-light & Comfortable: Ideal for travelers seeking lightweight camping gear. Weighing only 640 grams, it offers a thickness of 2,5 cm and a length of 195 cm.
- FIT Design: Anatomical shape for comfort and reduced weight. Wider upper part gradually narrows with rounded corners.
- Temperature Range: Comfortable in temperatures of 2°C and above, making it a versatile 3-season mat.
- Versatile Usage: Suitable for tents, bivy bags, or hammocks. Rounded corners keep it in place in a hammock.
- Easy to Use: Equipped with a one-way valve for quick inflation and
