Description

The modern man values a neat appearance. That includes having a regular manicure, which can only be achieved using first class instruments. The latest manicure sets by Boker Arbolito address these needs. The cases are made of premium cowhide leather, providing long-lasting protection for the quality tools, even when subject to the wear and tear of continuous travel. All manicure instruments are made of stainless steel with a fine matt surface finish. Four piece set with nail scissors, nail clippers, tweezers and nail file.
