Description

The Boker Plus Fieldfolder cuts tasks effortlessly and convinces in everyday life as well as in use. The reliable pocket knife is supplied with a dark stonewash blade made of D2, which is operated by a thumb hole and secured by a sturdy linerlock. The liners recessed into the impressive textured black G10 handle scales are made of stainless steel, while the partially exposed spacer is made of brass. A likewise brass-coloured ring around the decorative pivot screw adds an additional visual accent. Jimpings around the thumb rest and at the end of the handle increase safety at work. With lanyard hole, deep-carry clip (tip-up/r) and high-quality nylon pouch for storage.
