Casio G-SHOCK GD-010-3ER Tactical Watch - 10-Year Battery & Bio-Based Carbon Core Guard

Casio G-SHOCK GD-010-3ER is the new generation of tactical digital watches designed for durability, reliability, and sustainability. Featuring a 10-year battery life, shock-resistant Carbon Core Guard structure, and 200-metre water resistance, this model is built for professionals who demand dependable performance in any environment. The watch combines Casio's legendary toughness with bio-based resin materials for reduced environmental impact, while maintaining the rugged look and precision G-SHOCK is known for.

Highlights

- 10-Year Battery Life: Long-lasting power for years of reliable performance without frequent battery replacements.
- Carbon Core Guard Structure: Reinforced with carbon fibre for enhanced strength and reduced weight.
- Super Illuminator LED Backlight: Bright, white LED ensures excellent readability even in complete darkness.
- Bio-Based Resin Construction: Environmentally conscious materials used in the case, bezel, and band.
- 200-Metre Water Resistance: Suitable for professional marine activities, swimming, and water sports.

Design & Functionality

The GD-010-3ER features a large, easy-to-read digital display housed in a robust, multi-faceted case. The circular hairline finish on the dial ring adds a subtle technical flair, while the large front LED button provides quick illumination access. Despite its bold presence, the watch remains lightweight and comfortable for daily wear.
