Description

Chiruca Alto Thermolite Long Hunting Socks

Chiruca Alto Thermolite long hunting socks are designed for prolonged use in cold and demanding outdoor conditions. Thanks to the high content of Thermolite® yarn, these socks retain warmth even when wet, while remaining lightweight, breathable, and comfortable during long hours in the field.

Aim of the Product

These socks are intended to keep feet warm, dry, and comfortable during winter hunting and cold-weather hiking. They manage moisture efficiently, reduce heat loss, and maintain insulation even in damp conditions.

Audience

- Hunters spending long hours outdoors in winter
- Hikers and outdoor enthusiasts in cold climates
- Users of high hunting boots and winter footwear
- Anyone needing reliable thermal socks for low temperatures
