Description

Urban Tactical Hoodie Lite (Kangaroo) is designed for covert operations in an urban environment. It will also be appreciated though by those who are looking for classically tailored clothes that allow comfortable carrying of everyday equipment. Due to the use of flexible fabric, the hoodie will not restrict movement, and smaller pockets placed inside the kangaroo pocket will allow you to organize your equipment and protect it from getting lost during the action. Above the main pocket there is a zippered pocket, which is perfect for carrying documents or a wallet. On both arms there are discreet pockets for small items and Velcro panels to which you can attach patches. The blend of cotton and polyester we used, makes the hoodie dry quickly, so it will be just fine for workouts on colder days.

Features

- Adjustable hood
- Made of densely knitted and elastic cotton-polyester fabric
