Description

The Duffel bag is made of very durable PVC, has a classic tubular shape with a wide top opening, an inside mesh pocket under the flap and an outside pocket in the front, suitable for multiple uses and appreciated by travelers for its ergonomics and capacity. Designed to be carried in multiple ways, as a duffel bag by carrying it with the two side handles or the adjustable, padded shoulder strap or as a backpack while on the move with the padded, removable and adjustable shoulder straps concealed in the zippered pocket above the flap. The D-shaped opening allows you to immediately see what's inside, and the 4 compression straps help close the bag.
