Other Useful Information

Titanium is known for its strength, lightness, and resistance to corrosion, making it a premium material for both professional tools and fine dining utensils. The detachable screw-lock design ensures hygiene and portability, while the leather sheath not only protects the chopsticks but also underlines the luxury and care typical of Italian craftsmanship.

Glossary

- Titanium anodizing: A process that enhances titanium's surface, making it more resistant to scratches and giving it unique color finishes.
- Stropping/Honing: Not applicable here, but comparable to the finishing process for premium blades, highlighting the precision of craftsmanship.
- Maniago, Italy: A historic hub of cutlery and tool-making, often
