Description

Grid Reference Guide Pouch

The Grid Reference Guide (GRG) Pouch is an indispensable, forearm-mountable organizer designed to carry maps, notepads, target photos, and other essential hard copies. Its construction from lightweight nylon fabric includes a silent closure system for quiet operation in tactical environments.

FEATURES:

- Made of lightweight nylon fabric with a silent closure system.
- Forearm mountable via elastic, adjustable straps for a secure fit.
- Transparent pocket shields maps, photos, and other documents from damage.
- Additional smaller pocket conveniently holds notepads.
