Description

This is an absolute essential for trips with someone else or when you're really hungry: Our large stainless steel pot which holds around 1 liter. But that's not all ...This high-quality stainless steel pot is more than just a pot. It's actually two pots! At least, it is if you want it to be. Because the lid of the large pot can also be used as a pot. It holds around 475 ml, making it ideal for sauces. So this is the ideal combination to suit almost any taste. Thanks to the folding stainless steel handles, both pots take up very little space and are easy to store. The larger pot has an oz. / liter volume indicator, and the set also comes with a practical mesh bag.
