Description

Fallkniven F1pro Survival Knife, Elmax

Introducing the Fallkniven F1pro Elmax, the next evolution in survival knives. This professional-grade knife is crafted with Elmax SuperClean powder steel, a significant upgrade from the laminated cobalt steel used in its predecessor. Designed for serious survival tasks, the F1pro Elmax sets a new standard in strength, durability, and cutting performance. The standard edition includes the knife and a durable Zytel sheath.

Features

- Premium Steel: Made with Elmax SuperClean powder steel from Uddeholm, Sweden, offering 20% more strength and superior edge retention compared to laminated cobalt steel.
- Enhanced Blade Design: The thicker blade and refined convex edge deliver exceptional cutting performance and torsional rigidity.
- Improved Handle: The Thermorun handle is designed for a secure grip in all weather conditions.
- Stainless Steel Guard: Permanently mounted for added safety and durability.
- Advanced Sheath: The newly developed Zytel sheath is MOLLE-compatible, ensuring secure and versatile carry options.
