Traditional, slightly old-fashioned pocket knife.

Description

Fallkniven GPey – Exclusive Folding Knife, Lam. CoS Steel

The GPey is an exclusive folding knife crafted from laminated cobalt steel (Lam. CoS) and featuring a handle made from white Elforyn Super Tusk, an ivory imitation material renowned for its beauty and durability. This knife combines timeless elegance with cutting-edge technology.

Premium Features

The blade is made from laminated CoS steel, offering exceptional sharpness and edge retention. The handle, crafted from Elforyn Super Tusk, replicates the appearance of real ivory, providing an incredibly beautiful and low-maintenance material that stands out in both durability and aesthetics.

Design and Functionality

The GPey folding knife maintains a traditional appearance while integrating advanced materials and modern technology. The liner-lock system ensures a secure blade lock, making it one of the most reliable mechanisms available. Designed for easy cleaning, the knife can be rinsed under warm water and dried without requiring lubrication. The threaded blade bolt allows for personal adjustment of blade inertia, offering customized handling.
