Description

Fallkniven H1zElmax Hunting Knife, Elmax Steel

The Fallkniven H1 is a handy and impressively strong hunting knife designed for experienced hunters and outdoorsmen. Filled with the history of classic North Scandinavian knife-making art, this knife is a true blend of tradition and advanced technology. The H1 lacks a standard finger guard but ensures grip safety with its ergonomically shaped, textured Thermorun handle. Its innovative design caters to skilled users who can appreciate its optimal performance in demanding hunting conditions.

Sheath

The H1 comes with an injection-molded Zytel sheath, offering a streamlined, safe, and durable solution. The sheath is easy to operate with one hand and can be cleaned effortlessly, making it ideal for hunting environments.

Steel

The blade is made of Elmax SuperClean powder steel from Uddeholm, Sweden. This high-performance steel offers excellent edge retention, strength, and sharpness while being relatively easy to sharpen. The blade's hardness of 61-62 HRC strikes the perfect balance between durability and cutting performance.

ORDER CONFIRMATION

The H1 blade is designed specifically for processing game. Its shape provides a long, effective skinning edge and a carefully shaped tip for penetration without damaging the meat. This combination ensures clean cuts, minimizes blood flow, and prevents unnecessary damage to the game. With a blade length of 100 mm (around 4 inches) and a thickness of 5 mm, the H1 hunting knife offers the optimal dimensions for professional hunting tasks. Inspired by the functionality of butcher's knives, it serves as a reliable tool for processing game efficiently and effectively.

Trendsetting Design

The Fallkniven H1 hunting knife will quickly become a favorite for hunters and outdoor enthusiasts. Its sharp, tough blade steel, ergonomic Thermorun handle, and compact size combine to meet the demanding needs of experienced users. This knife is not only functional but also durable, making it a valuable addition to any hunting kit.
