Description

Fallkniven TK1L Hunting Knife, Desert Ironwood, 3G Steel

3G steel. Desert Ironwood handle. Covered leather sheath included.

Tre Kronor #1

If one wishes to treat oneself to a truly beautiful, technically complete knife, then the TK1 is an obvious choice: it is quite simply exceptional. The laminated powder steel offers strength and an edge never previously found on the world market. Every knife is manually produced by experienced, skilled knife makers, which means that each knife is unique.

About the Tre Kronor Series

Tre Kronor, the Swedish knife series, offers a highly advanced technological solution combined with timeless Swedish design. As the result of a long development process, Fallkniven is the first company in the world to offer a laminated knife blade in 3G steel, edged with sintered steel, or powder steel. To this edge steel, a resilient, anticorrosive steel is added to stabilize the hard center. This combination results in a rigid, strong blade that retains its edge extremely well.

These knives are designed in the Swedish minimalist idiom, where form harmonizes with function. The result is an edged implement that the user will find easy and accommodating – a world-beater from Sweden.

The knives are delivered in an exclusive gift box.

If you want an open dangler leather sheath or left-handed sheath for this knife, see below.
