Description

Fibertec Shoe Wax Eco is a most intensely leather care product made of a multitude of different waxes. It does not contain any silicone. The malleable wax can most easily be applied on leather. It is ideal for the treatment of hiking and alpine boots as well as any footgear, that requires extensive and long-lasting care. Shoe Wax Eco keeps the leather supple and protects against cracking.

- without solvents, silicones and microplastics
- highly concentrated and efficient

Made in Germany.
