Description

In the mythology of middle eastern Mesopotamia, the Anunnaki are the gods of the netherworld, opposing those from heaven. The new Anunnaki folder will also reliably do its service here on Earth, for the Anunnaki undeniably has a certain groundedness. The solid construction and the full-sized grip, which permits various hand positions (chocked for detailed cutting chores, or far back for heavy, powerful cuts), make the Anunnaki a top shelf outdoor folder. The same additional lock that secures the backlock in heavy-duty uses was already successfully used on the Meskwaki Tracker, giving the open knife strength similar to a fixed blade knife. The bellied blade also permits hunting uses (as a skinner), providing a maximum of cutting potential for a wide range of applications. G10 grip scales. N690 blade steel. Shipped with high-strength nylon belt pouch.
