Description

Strutting along in classic style, the European Hunter 610/13 features a handle made from pressed leather rings that provide a solid grip even in wet and cold conditions. The stainless steel pommel cap and the parrying element (also made from stainless steel) facilitate secure handling. The blade thickness is held moderate in order to preserve outstanding cutting performance. The European Hunter is therefore also suited as a traditional scout and fixed blade knife. Shipped with a classic leather sheath.
