Description

The Parang sets new standards, whether it be as an outdoor, survival, bush or camping knife. Due to its forward balanced wide blade of N690 it provides excellent chopping properties. The finger groove and the grooved blade spine generate a comfortable feel and a very safe grip which make many of your tasks considerably easier. The Parang can even be used as a Skinner thanks to the raised blade tip. The approved Forprene handle is characterized by an outstanding grip and ergonomics. Multiple lanyard holes allow for attaching the knife to a stick or the like. Includes a MOLLE-compatible Cordura sheath with additional loops for attachment to other MOLLE-compatible items of equipment such as the enclosed survival kit. The sturdy aluminum container comprises numerous items for the use in countless situations, including a condom and a glow stick for spontaneous parties in the wilderness. Comes with a separate MOLLE compatible Cordura sheath.
