Description

This Fosco Industries high-pitch whistle is designed for quick and sharp sound, making it an essential safety tool in any outdoor situation. Lightweight and non-corroding, it is perfect for various rescue and safety scenarios including mountain rescue, marine safety, evacuation, warning, and fire warden duties. The whistle floats in seawater, ensuring it remains accessible in marine conditions.

Key Features:

- Sharp and Quick Sound: Produces a high-pitched sound for effective signaling in emergencies.
- Lightweight and Non-Corroding: Durable construction that resists corrosion, perfect for prolonged outdoor use.
- Floats in Water: Designed to float in seawater, making it an ideal safety whistle for marine environments.

Applications:

- Mountain rescue
