Description

Ammo box is used to conveniently store and carry firearm ammunition. Thanks to its small dimensions, it can be carried in Rangemaster and Range bags, thus using it as additional protection, which is especially important in the case of handloaded ammunition.

The interior is lined with a fabric that absorbs dirt and is easy to clean and the outer layer is made of durable Cordura 500D. It can fit three standard 3 × 19 ammo packs, but you can also carry loosely poured-in ammunition inside.

Features

- Stiffened construction
- Velcro to personalize the box
- The interior is lined with easy-to-clean fabric
- Convenient transport grip
- Two-way zipper

Weight [g]	106
Material	Cordura® 500D
