Description

Administrative pouch for phone and maps

The Admin Pouch is a functional administrative pouch designed for carrying navigation and communication accessories in the field. The interior is designed to hold a phone and maps. A hook & loop adapter allows for securing a communications phone, while transparent sleeves can hold maps and notes. A flat pocket can carry additional accessories like a small notebook or compass, and an elastic loop easily holds a marker. This tactical pouch mounts easily with the MOLLE/PALS system and is ideal for field operations.

Features:

- Multifunctional interior with hook & loop securing system, protective sleeves for documents, and pen holders
- The zipper allows full opening of the main compartment
- Phone secure with adapters and round elastic band
