Description

Esus is the Celtic deity that represents power, passion, energy and strength. Esus is a God of nature and it is always portrayed cutting branches from trees with his knife. We took his name for our knife since it is meant to be a God amongst the other bushcraft and survival knives. Esus handle has been designed to perfectly fit your hand while using it, while the overall shape makes it perfect to endure the hardest task. Esus, as a God, is meant to last and triumph where others failed.
