Description

The Japanese custom knife maker Kansei Matsuno has immediately secured a large following with Wasabi, his first project for Böker Plus. With the Böker Plus LRF, he now presents a new design, which also clearly embodies the Japanese-inspired gentleman's knife. The blade of the LRF is opened by front flipper and provides a silky smooth gear through the ball bearing.

The slim design is based on stainless steel plates that house the linerlock. The large lanyard and the clip (Tipup / r) allow a comfortable carrying of the lightweight. The blade of VG-10 has a very fine longitudinal satin, which harmonizes perfectly with the handles made of Carbon Fiber/ Cocobolo/ G10.
