Description

With the Z-6S GTX C Lowa offers a robust mission boot that convinces with good stability and low weight. It is perfectly suited for missions in difficult terrain and marches with medium-heavy luggage.

The certified version of the proven operational boot. With the Z-6S GTX C Lowa offers a very comfortable shoe that convinces with functionality and low weight. It is perfectly adapted to missions in demanding terrain and marches with medium-heavy luggage. This suitability is also underlined by the insert-optimized rubber compound and profiling of the sole. The heat and cold insulating sole complex of the certified model also offers slip-resistant, oil and fuel-resistant properties and is resistant to contact heat. The raised upper made of durable suede leather offers optimum support and hold, while the durable PU material of the sole provides very good cushioning and step stability thanks to different degrees of hardness. Optimal foot climate even during sweaty activity is guaranteed by the lining with GORE-TEX membrane. The Z-6S GTX C is also antistatic.
