Description

Outac Lima Tactical Belt

Outac Lima Tactical Belt is a versatile and durable modular tactical belt system designed for professional users and outdoor enthusiasts. Featuring a detachable inner Velcro belt and a robust steel buckle, it provides both stability and convenience for carrying essential tactical gear, pouches, and security equipment.

Aim of the Product

To provide a reliable and adaptable load-bearing belt suitable for professional, tactical, or recreational use – allowing users to securely attach and organize their gear using the integrated MOLLE system.

Audience

- Military and law enforcement personnel
- Security professionals and shooting enthusiasts
- Outdoor adventurers, hunters, and airsoft players

Product Use

The Lima Tactical Belt offers a stable platform for mounting modular accessories such as holsters, pouches, and first-aid kits. Its detachable inner Velcro belt ensures a firm fit, while the steel buckle adds durability and quick adjustability. Note: This belt is not suitable for climbing or load-bearing activities.
