Description

The M07 Ranger Puukko will never let you down. It is a knife that functions in any season, in any circumstance. The blade of the M07 model is 11.9 centimeters long. It is sharp, retains its edge for a long time and when needed, is easy to sharpen. Normally carbon steel is prone to corrosion and will rust easily without proper care. In the case of the M07 Ranger Puukko the properties of carbon steel, such as corrosion resistance, have been improved with different types of coatings.

Design of M07 Ranger knife is best used in hunting, hiking and bushcraft.
