Description

Set of camping utensils for one person.

Deep lid pot made of aluminum with an anodized surface. Folding handles are made of steel wire, equipped with a silicone heat-resistant tube. Anodizing (also anodizing) creates a very strong and hard layer of aluminum oxide on the surface of the material, which prevents further oxidation, increases the strength of the material and its resistance to abrasion.

The total volume of the pot is 1000ml, of which 750ml is really usable. On the inside of the pot are marked volume lines with a resolution of 250ml. The lid can be used as a second container, the total volume of which is 500ml and the usable volume is 375ml. The pot can comfortably carry a 230g cartridge, a small gas stove, a towel and a sponge for dishes. This accessory is not included. We deliver the pot in a mesh transport package.
