Description

GENF belt bag is celebrating its big revival. Made from one piece of buffalo calfskin, the skin is cut by hand and the individual parts are sewn together. The "old havana" leather we use makes this vintage classic look authentic and that's why it's the fashion accessory par excellence! Whether as a cross-body bag over the shoulder, as a sling bag on the back, whether for jogging, at festivals or on vacation – the vintage fanny pack is always the perfect companion. Mobile phone, wallet, documents, small items, everything is stored safely and stylishly in the belt pouch.
