Description

Sealskinz Merino Liner Gloves - Unisex Baselayer Gloves

The Sealskinz Merino Liner Gloves are close-fitting inner gloves made from fine merino wool, designed to improve comfort, warmth and moisture control in cold conditions. Thanks to their slim cut, they are ideal for wearing under heavier gloves as a thermal baselayer.

Merino wool is the perfect material for a baselayer: it dries quickly, efficiently wicks away sweat and remains comfortable against the skin. These gloves provide added warmth without bulk and are suitable for everyday outdoor use, work or winter activities.

Aim of the Product

Designed as a thermal baselayer for the hands, these liner gloves improve insulation and moisture management when worn alone or under outer gloves.

Key Features

- High merino wool content for warmth and comfort
- Excellent moisture-wicking and sweat management
- Breathable fabric for all-day comfort
