Description

Hunt with your bolt-action gun in high definition using the Wraith Long Mount cantilever mount specifically designed for the Wraith digital day/night riflescope. This Weaver/Picatinny mount offers multiple mounting positions, while still leaving plenty of rail space behind your scope for iron sights, magnifier or other optics. The Wraith Long Mount positions your scope forward for proper eye relief and a wider field of view. Constructed of matte black durable aluminum, the one-piece design of the Wraith Long Mount measures 8" x 1.26" x 0.787" and weighs only 4.9 ounces.
