Description

Carry all the equipment you need concealed under your jacket.
When you have a break remove the vest with all your equipment intact and relax. Put it on again and know that you have everything you need.
The vest is also very popular for covert tactical use because it sits so tight on your body.

- Can be worn closed in the front or open for concealment when carried under an open jacket.
- Adjustable in size with an elastic string for comfort.
- Channels for radio wires on the back and front.
- Compartment for an ear piece on the top front.
- Three closures on the front to sit tight and still when fully loaded. Can be pushed into the vest to be hidden.
- Inside compartment with zipper. Removable holder for two stun grenades on each shoulder.
- Three outside elastic compartments and 6 inside elastic compartments with top opening for SMG or 5,56
- magazines, baton, radio, flash lights etc.
- Three back outside elastic compartments and 6 inside elastic compartments with top and bottom opening for SMG or 5,56 magazines, baton, flash lights etc.
- Inside compartment for a pistol on the left and right side.
- Trousers belt loop attachment in the bottom of the vest.
- Velcro sign holder on the front and back.
- The width can be adjusted 20 cm in the back in each size.
