SNIGEL Dual Magazine Pouch -18

The SNIGEL Dual Magazine Pouch -18 delivers secure magazine storage, quick access, and versatile mounting options – all in a rugged, field-proven design. Built for demanding military and law enforcement users, it ensures silent, reliable operation and efficient handling in all environments.

This pouch holds two 30-round 5.56 magazines and features a low-cut front for fast access during reloads. The large protective flap shields magazines from dirt and debris, while the innovative elastic hook system allows for silent, one-hand opening and closure – no fumbling, no noise, just smooth operation even under stress.

Inside, an elastic retention band keeps a single magazine secure when needed. The pouch is equipped with a drainage eyelet to remove water and moisture quickly, ensuring reliable performance in wet conditions. Its fold-back attachment system allows you to easily mount it onto any equipment vest, belt, or backpack platform.

Key Features

- Holds 2 × 30-round 5.56 magazines
- Low-cut front for faster magazine access
- Large flap provides dirt and debris protection
- Elastic hook closure for silent, secure, one-hand operation
- Internal elastic band for additional magazine stability
