Description

The Street Beat Lightweight is a long-overdue fusion of the compact Street Beat design and the cost-effective manufacturing of the Street Bowie. The result is the remarkably lightweight and compact Street Beat with an overmolded, fiberglass-reinforced handle and a black ceramic coating on the blade. The Lightweight also has Perrin's characteristic index finger groove, which makes the knife fit like a glove. VG-10 blade steel. The Street Beat is shipped with a polymer sheath and a rotating G-clip that supports dozens of carrying options.

Spyderco

The first pocket knife from Spyderco has been manufactured in 1981, even back then they used the so called "Spyderhole", a round hole in the blade. With the help of the hole, the knives can be opened very easily and fast by only using the thumb of the leading hand. During the years Spyderco has become one of the world leading brands and is now worldwide the supplier of different emergency forces from the police and military. Countless innovations, perfect workmanship and using the best materials guarantee top drawer products.
