Description

Suited Systems "THUNDERSTORM" Neck & Face Gaiter

The "Thunderstorm" Universal Head, Neck & Face Gaiter delivers unmatched versatility for every climate—scorching heat or frigid cold. Engineered for comfort, protection and adaptability, it can be worn under a helmet or transformed into multiple configurations to match your mission. Stay protected from dust, wind and insects while enjoying rapid-dry, highly breathable, multidirectional stretch fabric.

Aim of the Product

To provide a single, lightweight garment that adapts to extreme temperature swings and varied activities, ensuring continuous comfort, protection and mobility without swapping gear.

Audience

Tactical users, outdoor enthusiasts, riders, hikers, hunters and anyone needing a multifunctional, helmet-compatible gaiter for year-round operations or adventures.

Product Use

- Wear as a neck gaiter, face cover, balaclava, scarf or head wrap.
- Layer comfortably under helmets for added padding and sweat
