Suunto Race Ultimate Performance Watch (Stainless Steel) - High-definition AMOLED, HRV recovery metrics, and 26-day battery for serious athletes.

Description

Suunto Race Ultimate Performance Watch - Stainless Steel

The Suunto Race is the ultimate performance watch for dedicated athletes and enthusiasts seeking accuracy, durability, and robust training tools. With its high-definition AMOLED screen, advanced HRV recovery metrics, and up to 26 days of battery life in standby mode, Suunto Race ensures you stay focused on what matters most: your performance.

Key Features

- High Definition AMOLED Screen: A vivid 1.43" touch display that remains clear under direct sunlight.
- HRV Recovery Measurement: Monitor your heart rate variability (HRV) to assess recovery, training readiness, and overall well-being.
- Advanced Training Metrics: Get personalized feedback on training load, progression, and recovery, calculated by Suunto Coach AI.
- 95+ Sport Modes: Perfect for running, cycling, swimming, triathlons, and more. Easily customize your screens to prioritize the data you need.
- Free Offline Maps: Plan routes and navigate directly from your watch, even without a network connection.
- Up to 26 Days of Battery (Standby): Enjoy impressive battery life (16 days in typical smartwatch mode, up to 40 hours in Performance GNSS mode) without compromising on a bright AMOLED display.

Built for Racing & Training

Train smarter with in-depth insights on training load, progress, and recovery, thanks to heart rate variability analysis and AI coaching. On race day, use customizable race modes to see all key metrics, while the offline map and breadcrumb trail keep you on the right route.

Bright, Fast, and Durable

- Digital Crown: Easily browse features without smudging the screen.
- Military-Grade Testing: Engineered to withstand harsh environments and extreme temperatures.
- Carbon Offset & Low Footprint: 9.28 kg CO₂e, offset 100% by Suunto for a more sustainable choice.

Daily Features

Beyond training, the Suunto Race provides 24/7 heart rate tracking, sleep monitoring, music controls, and smart notifications. Stay updated and in control of your busy lifestyle without reaching for your phone.
