Description

Tatonka rain cape - suitable for bad weather and with integrated backpack rain protection

The zipper increases the volume, so that even a large trekking rucksack with a maximum width of 43 cm still has room under the cape. The hood with shield and the lacing with cord stoppers make the Tatonka rain poncho a must on every hiking and trekking tour. The Cape M also provides reliable protection from the rain when riding a bicycle.

- Including protection bag
- Fixation securing fabric in heavy wind conditions
- Volume extension as backpack cover
- All important seams are taped
- Hood with drawstring and cord stopper
- Hood with brim
