Description

TF-2215 Rifle Dry Bag

The TF-2215 Waterproof Rifle Dry Bag shields long guns from rain, sand and splashes during any outdoor mission. Crafted from rugged PVC/polyester laminate, it gives you roll-top dry-bag protection plus carry comfort via a padded shoulder strap and grab handle. Offered in black or green.

Aim of the Product

Purpose-built to keep rifles—and the optics mounted to them—dry and grit-free while hunting, range hauling, boat crossings or rough-weather patrols. Toss it in the truck bed, canoe or roof box without worrying about water damage.

Audience

Hunters, sport shooters, tactical professionals, field photographers with long tripods, and anyone needing a waterproof sleeve for 150-cm-class gear.

Product Use

- Slide rifle barrel-first into the bag; fold/roll the opening and buckle shut (3+ rolls recommended).
- Cinch or remove the adjustable padded shoulder strap for backpack-style carry.
- Stash small spares or paperwork in the side pocket (water-resistant zipper).
- Rinse with fresh water after saltwater exposure; air-dry fully before
