Description

Bushmaster will always have you covered in any situation, whether you're braving the Amazon jungle or the hunting trail! The Bushcraft Primitive Field Knife is a 1095 high carbon steel-bladed survival knife that will take any abuse that's thrown at it. The approx. 13.5 cm long full-tang blade has rough texturing above the blade for that primitive look, which complements the wooden slab handle. A genuine leather belt sheath houses this fixed blade. When you go out in the wild, you better have a Bushmaster!
