The compact hunting knife Pointer with a wide blade, goes back to the more tactically oriented David, which was thoroughly revised to optimize it for hunting.

1-4 Weeks

Description

The compact hunting knife Pointer with a wide blade, goes back to the more tactically oriented David, which was thoroughly revised to optimize it for hunting. The blade thickness was therefore reduced to 3.8 mm and the blade was hollow grounded, to make no compromises regarding the cutting properties. In addition, the blade steel is made of N690, which is corrosion resistant and easier to sharpen than the D2. Comes with leather sheath. Satin-finished blade.
