Description

The Sakura Kitchen Knife series is a joint project of Viper and Danish knifemakers Jens Ansø and Jesper Voxnæs. The four steak knives were made from nitrogen alloyed Nitro B (58-59 HRC). The 3D-milled Bocote handle scales give the Sakura series a beautiful look and feel. The sophisticated look is highlighted by the textured transition from handle to blade and the decorative screws on the handle scales. This series is definitely a cut above regular kitchen knives.

The Santoku is a Knife that is also becoming more and more popular in Europe. It is originally a Japanese blade form for a Utility Knife. Translated, his name means "The Three Virtues", it is equally suitable for meat, fish and vegetables. Thanks to the wide blade, the Santoku is particularly easy to handle.
